HYMNS AT 6.00pm

754 O worship the King, all glorious above

422 Alleluia, sing to Jesus!

546 O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder

1 Life comes to an upper room,
breaking through the fear and gloom;
walls and door-locks are no bar:
Jesus meets us where we are.
Life dispels the doubt of grief
bringing hope and new belief;
touching scars – these signs of pain
bring us back to life again.

3 Life comes to a sunlit shore,
sharing food with friends once more;
Fresh new callings banish guilt,
hope and faith and love rebuilt.
Jesus' vict'ry over death
brings new life with every breath,
to the world it's freely giv'n,
reconciling earth with heav'n.

2 Life comes to a broken heart,
bowed by sorrow, torn apart;
in the darkness of our tears
Jesus speaks to calm our fears.
On our journey life comes home,
in this fellowship made known;
with Christ's body we are fed:
life revealed in broken bread.

Cherry Trees in the churchyard. Eight new flowering Tai Haku cherry trees are now resplendent in the churchyard. Thanks to the Sakora project for gifting them, to Janet Pibworth of Alnwick Town Council for all her help, to the Diocese and the PCC for speedy permissions, and to the volunteers who dug the holes and planted the trees. Enjoy!

Lost but hoping to find... a small booklet from the 1960s on the history of the church, possibly left in church and in a transparent plastic envelope with the name and address of Paul & Eve Jarvis on it. It has a mainly white cover with a drawing of the church. Please let Paul or Eve know if you have seen it. Thank you.
