2 Corinthians 13 : 11 – 13

Paul ends this letter with the full form of his customary blessing. These simple trinitarian words, of grace, love, and communion have been familiar in every church in every century.

Matthew 28 : 16 – 20

Matthew ends his Gospel with the promise that Christ is always with us. The disciples are commissioned to carry Christ's own healing love, to make new disciples, and baptise them as the church has done ever since, in the name of the Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

For your prayers in the Trinity season...

Father, in whom we live,
in whom we are and move,
glory and power and praise receive
of thy creating love.

We pray for your Church throughout the world, continually exploring new ways to be in fellowship and to offer worship. Unite us by your creative power across earthly boundaries of time and space to bring you our united voices of praise and glory.

Incarnate Deity,
let all the ransomed race
render in thanks their lives to thee,
for thy redeeming grace.

We pray for all those who have revealed Christ to us in different ways.
For family and friends, medical and school staff, carers, homeless people and strangers – we give you our thanks, and pray that we in our turn might reveal Christ to our neighbour too.

Spirit of holiness,
let all thy saints adore
thy sacred energy, and bless thine heart-renewing power.

We pray for all those who need the comfort of your Holy Spirit today. The lonely, the anxious, the bereaved; the sick, the distressed, the dying; those facing difficult decisions and those forced to make new beginnings – bring your peace to them. Fill us all with your Holy Spirit.

Eternal, triune Lord!
Let all the hosts above,
let all the sons of men, record
and dwell upon thy love.

We bring all our prayers to you, O God our Father, in the name of Jesus and in the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
